

The background of the poster is a photograph of a two-story stone building at night, identified as 'Gasthof Post'. The building has several windows with warm interior lights and blue and white striped awnings. A large, full moon is in the dark sky, with a witch flying on a broom and several bats. In the foreground, there are two lit jack-o'-lanterns, a small candle, and lanterns on stone pillars. The text 'Halloween Party' is overlaid in a large, stylized font.
